Remarks

Here ends the Enumeration of Congress Street making in all on said Street 172 Names

Congress Street is only really an alley between Market and Jefferson Streets the lots join each opening back to it

Some of the Houses are not numbered and I gave the Number by Comparison with those having Numbers

The Most of the lots are occupied as Stables Shops and back buildings from the other Streets and many of them vacant as to buildings of any kind

Note D.—In making entries in columns 9, 10, 11, 12, 16 to 20, an affirmative mark only will be required, the absence of a mark being sufficient to indicate the negative. Thus, in column 12, where the name of a female is entered, if she is married during the Census year, a mark is to be made in column 12, but if she is not married during the Census year, the column is to be left blank.
Note E.—Question No. 12 will only be asked in cases where an affirmative answer is given to Question No. 11, when the letter "D" is to be used.
Note F.—Question No. 14 will only be asked in cases where a doubtful answer is given to Question No. 13.
Note G.—In column 7 an abbreviation for the name of the month may be used.
